

Moncton Colleges Excelling in NBACC Quality Assurance Program

Four member colleges of the NBACC have completed preparation of their Quality Assurance Policies and have had their policies approved by the QAP Monitoring Committee. We think the fact that all four colleges are located in Moncton is merely a coincidence, but we challenge colleges in other parts of the province to complete their policies and bring balance to the NBACC!

Congratulations to the four colleges – Oulton College, Bay Tech College, Medes College and McKenzie College. Oulton College has participated in two annual reviews, subsequent to completing its initial QAP Policies, Bay Tech has had one annual review and Medes will have its first annual review in 2011. McKenzie will have its first annual review in 2012. Oulton and Bay Tech will also have annual reviews in 2011.
