Participants from a Non-Member College in N.B.:	$165 plus HST
Participants from a Non-Member College outside N.B.:	$260 plus HST

Fees are invoiced after the workshop.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

To obtain a certificate of completion of the full Instructor Development Program, participants must also complete the Responding to Reading and Observation components of the program. Instructors who are new to the NBACC IDP should register in the Orientation component before commencing the Talking About Teaching workshops.

People who have completed all components of the NBACC IDP and who register in the University of New Brunswick's Bachelor of Education in Adult Education program may receive six credit hours toward their degree.

Please note that organizers may cancel due to insufficient registrations. If you must cancel a registered participant, please do so not less than five business days prior to the workshop, otherwise a cancellation fee of ½ the registration fee, plus HST, will be charged. Cancelling less than 24 hours prior to the start of the workshop will result in the College being invoiced for the full amount of the registration. Thank you for your understanding.
